the nineteenth century marked a new era in the history of cairo and egypt as a whole this dissertation examines the implementation of the project of modernizing cairo in the second half of the nineteenth century although egypt at that time was still part of the ottoman empire its ruler khedive ismail 1863 1879 exerted immense efforts to upgrade his capital city and the life of its citizens with the ambition to make cairo and egypt part of the modern world in doing so egypt indeed implemented the project of modernity while looking at the west for inspiration however i argue that this could be only seen as a form of egyptian modernity and not a mere replication of a western model
