twenty first century christians live in diaspora merely one voice among many without enjoying their once privileged place in society this is particularly the case for those who struggle to be a church that mirrors the capaciousness of god s grace we are assaulted by the venting of pent up furies which are stoked by profound anxieties over the loss of a cherished worldview and fear about an unacceptable but unstoppable future frequently we struggle to speak an authentic word of god amidst the cross talk of many voices this book a canonical study of hosea through malachi called collectively the book of the twelve describes a biblical model of faithful speaking under similar circumstances it guides reaction to this loss toward intense engagement with scripture and theology in order to sense again the meaning of speaking what is at the heart of faith god s unalterable commitment to continuing faithfulness with us do you struggle to know and follow god s call for you in the world in this twenty six session lifeguide bible study on genesis tells us that even the giants of faith abraham isaac jacob and joseph struggled to obey their creator but genesis also reveals the amazing truth that the god who called a world and a nation into being also calls each of us to serve him a story well told and subsequently imbibed by its recipients has the power to shape one s beliefs identity and way of life so what happens when a person or community is swept up in such a story in this study shaw draws upon the dual methodologies of narrative transportation and social identity theories to consider how 1 peter s use of old testament narratives and καλέω language serves to transport it s recipients into an identity defined as elect sojourners amidst suffering 1 peter calls the anatolian believers to a priestly ministry blessing their antagonists as they await their eternal glory in christ in the past decades work has changed dramatically yet we are still sent into the new world of work with old outdated tools expectations and strategies this leaves us ill equipped in our pursuit of meaningful work that will impact our communities and change the world the result unmet expectations and unfulfilled longings not to mention curiosity about how to do the work we sense god calling us to make work matter provides a blueprint for a better future filled with stories and insights from faithful entrepreneurs and built on solid research this book will help you discover what god is calling you to do in a changing world define where you are in this season of work embrace what the bible says and doesn t say about calling develop a mindset and habits suited for the new world of work reflect on and work out ways that sustain you on the journey it s time to close the gap between what you re doing now and the meaningful work you desire to accomplish this book will help you chart your own way forward
